Our records show that you made a contribution to SPAD, via a deduction from your vacation benefits, in (August) of 1996. Thank you very much for your generous assistance. Pursuant to federal law, we must ask for certain information relating to your employment at the time you made that contribution — that is, at the time you filled out your vacation pay application and the contribution was deducted.

Accordingly, please answer the question set below and return this letter, with your employment information, to SPAD in the pre-addressed envelope provided.

At the time that you applied for vacation pay in (August) of 1996, were you currently sailing or assigned to a vessel? Check One:

☐ No, I was "on the beach."

☐ Yes, I was currently working for _____

In order not to inconvenience you in the future this question regarding SPAD will now appear on the vacation application itself.

Thank you very much for your prompt attention to this matter.
